AN ACT

For the relief of E. Christian Des Marets, Senior.

October 12, 1968

[H. R. 9089]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That E. Christian Des Marets, Senior, of Redlands, California, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $805.61, representing amounts owing to the United States by reason of the shipment in 1956 from Burtonwood Air Force Base, England, to Fort MacArthur, San Pedro, California, of his household goods that exceeded the weight limit of such goods which would be transported without cost to him by the United States under his United States Air Force travel orders even though representatives of the United States Air Force informed him before he left England that his household goods were within such weight limit. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act.

E. Christian
Des Marets, Sr.

SEC. 2. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said E. Christian Des Marets, Senior, in full settlement of all his claims arising out of his payments to the United States Air Force toward the cost of shipment in 1956 of his household goods that exceeded the weight limit referred to in the first section of this Act, in the amount of $426.39 with respect to the shipment from Burtonwood Air Force Base, England, to Fort MacArthur, San Pedro, California.

(b) No part of the amount appropriated in subsection (a) of this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney
